Canadian Western Agribition Wins Business of the Year at The Hospitality Saskatchewan Tourism Awards

Regina, Saskatchewan – Canadian Western Agribition (CWA) is proud to announce that it has been named Business of the Year (Under 20 Employees) at the Hospitality Saskatchewan Tourism Awards, held Wednesday, September 24 at Prairieland Park in Saskatoon.

The annual awards dinner brought together tourism leaders, industry stakeholders, and supporters of Saskatchewan's hospitality sector to celebrate the province's world-class reputation for warmth and welcome.

"Hospitality is at the heart of what we do," said Shaun Kindopp, CEO of Agribition. "We take immense pride in helping fill hotels, restaurants, and attractions across the province, while showcasing the very best of Saskatchewan. Agribition is proud to play a role in strengthening Saskatchewan's tourism sector and sharing the many unique experiences our province has to offer."

CWA extends its congratulations to all the finalists and winners recognized at this year's awards.

As an organization built on community, culture, and connection, Canadian Western Agribition remains committed to honouring and promoting Saskatchewan's hospitality sector, while continuing to share the province's unique spirit with visitors from around the world.
