Judged by: Alastair Burnett, Radville, SK, Sheldon Kyle, Redvers, SK, Kristine Sauter, Wawota, SK, Canadian National 4-H & Youth Judging Competition Winner

Alastair Burnett: Alastair, along with his wife, Kelli, and their two girls, Bailey and Andy, operate Burnett Cattle, a commercial and purebred Angus herd located south of Ceylon, SK. Burnett Cattle market bulls privately and sell select females through the Angus Collection Sale each year in Olds.

Sheldon Kyle: Sheldon lives near Redvers, Saskatchewan, where he along with his family consisting of his partner Ella Wright, son Oliver and Father, Ray Kyle own and operate Kenray Ranch. The family-owned ranch was homesteaded in 1902 and has survived the test of time. The Kyle family added the Red Angus breed to their seedstock operation in 1986 and in 1989 their registered Simmental herd was phased out. They aim to calve 200 registered cows annually: hosting an annual online bull sale the first Thursday of April. The Kyle family markets Red Angus females and frozen genetics by private treaty sales and through various sales rings across western Canada. Sheldon believes in breeding the kind of cattle that he likes to look at and the type that fits his lower input management philosophy. A busy family schedule keeps Sheldon and Ella chasing after their son Oliver to Jr Shows, 4-H events, Hockey Rinks and Ball Diamonds.

Kristine Sauter: Kristine, her husband, Karl, and their daughter, Natalie, operate Bridgeway Livestock. They raise Red Angus, Simmental, and Percentage cattle near Wawota, Saskatchewan. They will be hosting their Annual Working Stiff's Bull Sale on the farm, March 24th, 2026. Be sure to visit Bridgeway Livestock in the Stock Exchange this week.
